Barbara Ann Scott: Come Skate with Me

Vernissage: 2pm-4pm on Thursday August 9, 2012

Exhibit Dates: August 9- (ongoing for 5 years)

Location: Ottawa City Hall, 110 Laurier West

Ottawa-born skating sensation Barbara Ann Scott knew she wanted to skate from an early age. In 1948, she became the only person to ever hold the Canadian, North American, European and World Championship titles and the Olympic gold medal simultaneously. Barbara Ann's outstanding achievements and shining personality have led her to be a lasting icon of Canadian sports history.

The five-year interactive exhibit features photographs and memorabilia (including her Olympic gold medal) from her career as an amateur and professional figure skater.

Yousuf Karsh: My Ottawa

Vernissage: 5:30 - 7:30pm on Friday September 28, 2012

Exhibit Dates: September 18 to October 31, 2012

Location: 100 Tallwood Drive, Gallery

In Yousuf Karsh: My Ottawa, the City of Ottawa Archives reveals historical portraits of prominent Ottawa figures and never-before-seen portraits of Ottawa residents as captured through the charismatic and often candid lens of prolific photographer Yousuf Karsh. Visitors will not only witness the evolution of Karsh's portraiture from 1935 to 1985, but they will also learn about the lives and stories of these Ottawa inhabitants.

Caring for Your Photographs: Print and Digital

Date: 9am -12pm on Saturday September 29

Location: 100 Tallwood Drive, Learning Centre (Rm. 115)

Are you an amateur photographer or interested in preserving your family photographs? This workshop will provide professional advice for the care of print and digital photographs.

Bring your photographs with questions to get expert solutions from a Conservator and Archivist on staff.

Learn from the experts what to do, what materials to use and where to buy them.

Register online at Ottawa.ca (817107) using 'Service Ottawa' and email Ottawa.ca/archives for inquiries. Family account number and Pin number are required for registration.
